

WORK SCAPES FUTURE OF WORK

Poster Competition: Rules and Guidelines

Suggested Topics:

1. Artificial Intelligence Vs Intelligence Amplification
2. Reimagining Workforce
3. Automation and Efficiency
4. Redefining Workspaces
5. Digitalisation
6. Global Mobility

Eligibility:

Entries are invited from:

1. All students currently enrolled in a university
2. Professionals with Bachelor's degree not older than 10 years
3. Professionals with Master's degree not older than 7 years
4. Professionals with PhD degree not older than 5 years
5. Scholars currently pursuing postdoctoral research

Deadline: All applications must be submitted by 15 July 2018

Application Procedure:

The entries should include the following:

- poster competition application form duly filled and signed
- poster
- abstract (250-300 words)
- updated CV

All entries to be sent to DWIH New Delhi at info@dwih.in via Dropbox by the above mentioned deadline.

Poster Specifications:

A. Size:

A2 (W-16.5 x H-23.4 in) or A1 (W-23.4 x H-33.1 in), borders may or may not be used but the poster must not be larger than the size mentioned.

B. Presentation:

- Horizontal or Vertical
- Border or Non-bordered
- Written-legends, slogans, and/or phrases may or may not be used
- Colour or Black & White
- No AV technology shall be permitted in the presentation of the poster
- DWIH New Delhi will provide a stand/table at the venue for poster display

Rules:

- Posters to be original work, prepared by the applicants and not previously presented at any other competition; copying/replicating an idea shall be considered as plagiarism and the applicant shall be disqualified immediately
- Applicants to submit applications individually and only one poster shall be considered for each applicant

Judging Criteria:

- Coverage of Topic
- Creativity and Innovativeness
- Organisation/Logical Sequencing of Ideas
- Layout and Design

Shortlisted posters shall be put on display at the DWIH annual symposium WorkScapes: Future of Work, scheduled to take place from 26-28 September at India Habitat Centre - New Delhi.

Top contestants shall also be invited to attend the symposium and present their posters.